I was trying to come up with a catchy phrase using the word "trivia" in the headline, and I (Sharon) was immediately convicted that these statics are not trivia. These demographics tell us that through this class we are reaching beyond the borders of Thailand into at least 5 nations*; women are actively involved in leadership and ministry; and God is calling all generations to serve Him.

*Previous classes included students from Africa, Singapore, Australia, India, Brazil, Poland, China, and Malaysia)

ENGLISH-BURMESE NIGHT SCHOOL STARTING SOON

Beginning January 7, 2016, RBTCT is adding a new night school program to reach more people and train more leaders: classes taught in English and translated into Burmese. Through the years, many English speaking people originally from Myanmar have graduate our program. Still, there are many more living in Bangkok who neither speak Thai nor English prohibiting them from attending our school, until now. We are excited about reaching this new group of people!

A SHOUT OUT SAYING "THANK YOU" TO REV. JASON YOUNGER, AND REVS. ROD & REBECCA SUNDHOLM

Pastors Rod & Rebecca Sundholm (pictured below) from Hillsboro, OR, were here the first half of November. They started off the first week of the new school term tag-team teaching a Prayer Seminar (open for all to attend), then preached at the church two services on Sunday, and finished off by ministering to the Bible school alumni at the last alumni meeting of 2015.

Pastor Jason Younger (pictured above and below) from Pittsburg, California was a blessing to all of us as he ministered at least 3 hours per day, 8 days in a row: first, for our church camp, God's Vessel, followed non-stop by teaching a week at RNET (Rhema Northeast Thailand).

The church camp theme was a continuation of a subject we have been emphasizing in the church since August, that is, every believer is called to serve God and be a vessel for God to use to touch people and reach this world with the Gospel.

God showed up strong every day. People were helped and healed, and brought closer to Jesus. At the end of the week, 3 people enrolled in Bible school as a result of God working in their hearts during the Prayer Seminar.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Please pray for Sharon as she travels from Bangkok to Oklahoma City on December 9th, and for Keith as he travels back to Bangkok on December 22-23. Sharon will stay in Oklahoma and look after her father-in-law.

Please also pray for our Christmas evangelism on December 27th. The Sunday event includes a performance about the life of Jesus, music, testimonies, and the Gospel message with an invitation to receive the greatest gift of all - salvation through faith in Jesus Christ!
